

ÖAW

AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

15-16 FEBRUARY 2023
START: 09.00 PM EET
ATHENS BRANCH OF THE AUSTRIAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE
LEOFOROS ALEXANDRAS 26
106 83 ATHENS, GREECE

WORKSHOP

LIVING AND CONSUMING AS A WESTERNER

CENTRAL AND WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN
PEOPLES AND GOODS IN GREECE AND ASIA
MINOR (5TH CENTURY BC TO 7TH CENTURY AD)

UNIVERSIDAD
COMPLUTENSE
MADRID

Österreichisches
Archäologisches
Institut

PROGRAMME

WEDNESDAY, 15 FEBRUARY

- 09.30 Opening and all-together breakfast
- 10.30–10.45 Birgitta Eder
Welcoming speech
- 10.45–11.00 Horacio González Cesteros & Guillermo Pascual Berlanga
Workshop presentation
- 11.00–12.30 Session I (Each lecture is followed by 15 minutes of discussion)
- 11.00–11.30 Pascal Arnaud
Trading ships and maritime routes of the Aegean
- 11.45–12.15 George Koutsouflakis & Olga Marinaki
Western imports in the Aegean: the puzzle of quantifying amphora shipwrecks
- 12.30–14.30 LUNCH BREAK
- 14.30–18.00 Session II (Each lecture is followed by 15 minutes of discussion)
- 14.30–15.00 Charikleia Papageorgiadou
Contacts, trade and exchange in the eastern Mediterranean. Where is the money?
- 15.15–15.45 François Kirbihler
P. Vedius Pollio, knight son of a freedman, and his people: trade between East and West, with customs advantages. The contributions of a complex file (literature, epigraphy, archaeology and onomastics)
- 16.00–16.30 Sophia Zoumbaki
Western merchants and other professionals in Athens (5th c. BC-1st c. AD)
- 16.45–17.15 COFFEE BREAK
- 17.15–17.45 Kostas Filis
Salted vs fresh fish consumption in the North Aegean. The evidence from ancient Akanthos
- 20.30 JOINT DINNER

THURSDAY, 16 FEBRUARY

09.00–12.30 Session III (Each lecture is followed by 15 minutes of discussion)

09.00–09.30 Antonio Sáez

Punic and western Greek amphorae in the Aegean from Classical to early Hellenistic times. Connecting Mediterranean economies and societies beyond maritime trade

09.45–10.15 Paul Reynolds

Beirut and the West: Comparing western amphora imports and distribution networks beyond Greece and the Aegean

10.30–11.00 Philip Bes

Give a Little Bit. Western and Central Mediterranean Pottery in Roman Limyra

11.15–11.45 COFFEE BREAK

11.45–12.15 Laura Rembart

Eastern Sigillata B disguised as "Arretina": The importance of Italian Sigillata for the early ESB series

12.30–14.30 LUNCH BREAK

14.30–18.45 Session IV (Each lecture is followed by 15 minutes of discussion)

14.30–15.00 Alice Waldner

Cooking like a Westerner? Preparing food in Ephesos and Asia Minor

15.15–15.30 Horacio González Cesteros

Ephesos as consumer and redistributor of western commodities in the Aegean

16.00–16.30 COFFEE BREAK

16.30–17.00 Dimitris Grigoropoulos, Tania Panagou & Dimitris Sourlas

Western Amphorae and Local Tastes in Late Hellenistic and Early Augustan Athens: The Evidence from the Market of Caesar and Augustus

PROGRAMME

- 17.15–17.45 Kathleen Warner-Slane
Some Iberian and Gaulish Amphoras of the early Empire from east of the Theatre at Corinth
- 18.00–18.30 Guillermo Pascual Berlanga
Western transport amphorae in Northwestern Greece (2nd – 1st cent. BC)
- 18.45–19.00 Horacio González Cesteros & Guillermo Pascual Berlanga
Conclusions

CONTACT

Horacio González Cesteros, Universidad Complutense Madrid
hogonzal@ucm.es

© Austrian Archaeological Institute at the OeAW, Vienna 2023
Photo: Tower of the Winds (Athens) (© OeaW-OeAI/Christoph Baier)