Entity Presentation (We are)

The Unit is responsible for international affairs in DG FISMA. The mission of Unit A4 is to develop, coordinate and implement the international strategy of DG FISMA, across all its instruments, to achieve the policy priorities of the DG and the Commission, particularly in relation to financial stability, sustainable and digital finance. The Unit coordinates and supports multilateral work in the G20, Financial Stability Board (FSB) and other international bodies, formulates FISMA's policy on the relations with third countries, runs bilateral regulatory dialogues with third country jurisdictions, including the United States, the UK, China, Japan, Canada and Switzerland. The Unit is responsible for the international activities related to sustainable finance and contributes to the development of DG policies with regard to the international dimension. It also contributes to EU trade, neighbourhood and enlargement policies and coordinates FISMA's actions in relation to Ukraine. The unit works closely with other units in the DG and with other DGs (e.g. DG ECFIN, DG TRADE, DG CLIMA, DG INTPA, DG NEAR) as well as the EEAS.

Job Presentation (We propose)

Unit A4 in DG FISMA is an active and friendly team and is looking for a policy officer on international financial services issues.

The new colleague will be expected to perform the following tasks:

- contribute under the supervision of a Commission official to the development of DG FISMA policies with regard to the international dimension of financial markets and services;
- contribute to the preparation of senior management participation in international fora, notably the G20 and the Financial Stability Board;
- contribute to the international negotiations in the area of financial services;
- co-ordinate bilateral relations, including the preparation of regulatory dialogues with key third countries jurisdictions in the financial services area;
- contribute to and prepare meetings and briefings on international aspects of financial markets and services.

Jobholder Profile (We look for)

We are looking for a motivated colleague with a legal or economic background and a broad knowledge of financial services policies. Expertise in the area of international relations and experience in policy development and coordination will be an asset.

The successful candidate must have highly developed analytical, drafting and communication skills. The candidate should have a strong team spirit, high sense of responsibility, sound and critical judgment, flexibility and ability to work under time pressure.

A good knowledge of English is essential.

Eligibility criteria

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008) 6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

Under the terms of the SNE Decision, you need to comply with the following eligibility criteria at the starting date of the secondment:

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD.
- Seniority: having worked for at least one full year (12 months) with your current employer on a permanent or contract basis.
- Employer: must be a national, regional or local administration or an intergovernmental public organisation (IGO); exceptionally and following a specific derogation, the Commission may accept applications where your employer is a public sector body (e.g., an agency or regulatory institute), university or independent research institute.
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. If you come from a third country, you must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of the EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

Conditions of secondment

During the full duration of your secondment, you must remain employed and remunerated by your employer and covered by your (national) social security system.

You shall exercise your duties within the Commission under the conditions as set out by aforementioned SNE Decision and be subject to the rules on confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest as defined therein.

In case the position is published with allowances, these can only be granted when you fulfil the conditions provided for in Article 17 of the SNE decision.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015). It is up to you to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

Submission of applications and selection procedure

If you are interested, please follow the instructions given by your employer on how to apply.

The European Commission only accepts applications which have been submitted through the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of your country, the EFTA Secretariat or through the channel(s) it has specifically agreed to. Applications received directly from you or your employer will not be taken into consideration.

You should draft your CV in English, French or German using the Europass CV format (Create your Europass CV | Europass). It must mention your nationality.

Please do not add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Processing of personal data

The Commission will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council ⁽¹⁾. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. Before applying, please read the attached privacy statement.

⁽¹⁾ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39)
