Subject: Secondment to the General Secretariat of the Council of a national expert in the field of counter-terrorism coordination

Ref.: SNE/09/2026 (GSC.CTC) - 1 post (312065)

Dear Sir or Madam,

The EU Counter-Terrorism Coordinator office of the General Secretariat of the Council is seeking a seconded national expert to assist and advise the EU Counter-Terrorism Coordinator on all internal and external aspects of EU counter-terrorism policy.

The EU Counter-Terrorism Coordinator (EU CTC), whose position was established by the European Council in the wake of the terrorist attack in Madrid in 2004, is in charge of coordinating counter-terrorism work within the EU, overseeing the implementation and evaluation of the EU's counter-terrorism strategy, integrating the internal and external aspects of the fight against terrorism, and improving communication between the EU and third countries and international organisations.

The field of counter-terrorism is continuously evolving in the light of urgent new or changing terrorist threats. In this challenging environment, the EU CTC is the connection between the internal and external dimensions of counter-terrorism and is required to make recommendations to Member States.

The position advertised is for one of eight senior advisers, most of whom are seconded national experts, in the vibrant team of the EU CTC. It offers the opportunity to be at the centre of the EU debate on counter-terrorism and to be involved in the engagement of the EU CTC at EU level and their missions and bilateral dialogues with third countries and international organisations. It also offers an environment where public speaking, diplomacy and drafting skills can be honed and expanded.

During the secondment, the national expert will have the chance to work on policies that directly impact the future of Europe, to engage with key international stakeholders and to participate in high-level negotiations in a dynamic and collaborative environment.

At the GSC, we value a stimulating and collaborative working environment. While the role involves active participation in meetings, working parties and missions, we also recognise the importance of work-life balance and strive to support our staff in managing their professional and personal commitments.

The job description, which details the qualifications and experience required, is annexed hereto.

The duration of the secondment will be two years, with the possibility of an extension up to a maximum of four years in total. However, in accordance with Article 5 of Council Decision (EU) 2015/1027, the secondment could, in exceptional cases, be further extended for an additional two years.

The expert should take up their duties at the General Secretariat of the Council on 1 November 2026.

The conditions of the secondment, including allowances paid by the Council, are set out in the Council Decision of 23 June 2015 concerning the rules applicable to experts on secondment to the General Secretariat of the Council (Council Decision (EU) 2015/1027, OJ L 163, 30.6.2015, repealing Decision 2007/829/EC). According to Article 2 of that Decision, seconded national experts must be nationals of an EU Member State.

Member States are hereby invited to propose qualified candidates for the post.

Proposals should indicate the national contact point(s) responsible for each candidate's application. Applications should be accompanied by a curriculum vitae detailing all posts held by the candidate to date, as well as their education, and a letter of motivation.

Replies to this letter should be sent by email, no later than 12:00 CEST on 13 July 2026, to the following address: seconded.national.experts@consilium.europa.eu.

The relevant department, together with the Human Resources Directorate, will examine the applications received, decide which candidates to shortlist and conduct interviews, which will most probably take place in the beginning of September 2026. The Appointing Authority will decide on the appointment based on the outcome of the selection procedure. The General Secretariat of the Council may also decide to use the list of suitable candidates to fill future vacancies with the same profile.

Further information can be obtained from the General Secretariat of the Council by contacting Mr Piotr Krygiel, Principal Adviser – Team Leader, tel. +32 2 281 3775, email: piotr.krygiel@consilium.europa.eu

Yours sincerely,

Rebekka Wiemann

Job description

A. Main tasks and responsibilities

As an adviser to the EU Counter-Terrorism Coordinator (EU CTC), the expert will be called upon to:

- be responsible for the coordination of initiatives relating to counter-terrorism and countering violent extremism, both internally and externally. The adviser will focus in particular on internal security and advancing counter-terrorism policy in the international context;
- identify areas of cooperation in the fields of counter-terrorism and countering violent extremism within the EU and with third countries and contribute actively to setting up counter-terrorism projects and initiatives, both inside and outside the EU;
- maintain an overview of activities relevant to terrorism in the context of their files under discussion in all Council bodies and working parties, as well as of relevant developments at the Commission, the European External Action Service and the European Parliament;
- promptly draft policy papers (including for the Council), speeches and other written input, and to prepare and report on key meetings and visits of the EU CTC;
- prepare and advise the EU CTC on the policy/political and technical aspects of a broad range of complex files, evaluate their implementation and identify possible gaps and areas for further progress or of concern;
- attend working parties and meetings alongside the EU CTC, including in third countries, and often on their behalf;
- replace the EU CTC and act on their behalf in European and international contexts.
- keep up to date on a broad range of issues related to terrorism, including through extensive research, reading and regular contacts with the broader expert community;
- liaise and coordinate closely with EU institutions and agencies, Member States, third countries, international organisations, the private sector, academia and think tanks;
- facilitate close links between high-level authorities dealing with counter-terrorism in their Member State and/or other Member States and the EU CTC;
- speak frequently in public.

B. General conditions

According to the Decision¹, applicants must:

- have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment;
- remain in the service of their employer throughout the period of secondment;
- have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions relevant to the performance of the duties assigned to them;
- be nationals of one of the Member States of the European Union;
- have a thorough knowledge of one official language of the EU² and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of their duties.

C. Qualifications and experience

Applicants should have:

- completed university (a master's degree or above would be an asset), higher or military school education, as attested by a diploma, or have equivalent professional experience;
- ideally, relevant experience working with security actors in their Member State and in policy-making relevant to aspects of security and counter-terrorism in the domain of justice and home affairs and/or foreign affairs;
- a thorough command of written English, with a special focus on drafting and editing. A knowledge of French would be considered an asset.

The following experience would be an asset:

- experience in a senior-level position in their home country and/or abroad;
- experience in policy-making in the area of internal security or foreign affairs;
- experience working abroad/in an international environment, especially in EU relations, with third countries and international organisations;
- experience/knowledge of the functioning of the EU in the field of security (internal and external).

D. Required skills

- Strong sense of political judgment, initiative, creativity, autonomy and responsibility.
- Possess a good understanding of working in a politically sensitive environment.
- Ability to work independently and in support of the EU CTC.
- Excellent interpersonal skills and a team spirit.

¹ Council Decision of 23 June 2015 concerning the rules applicable to experts on secondment to the General Secretariat of the Council.

² The languages of the EU are: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, Irish, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish and Swedish.

- Willingness and capacity to work in a fast-paced, demanding and politically sensitive environment with a heavy workload.
- Handle files proactively, continuously and autonomously with the relevant actors, and contribute comments, input and new ideas.
- Work quickly on both the technical and political aspects of a broad variety of complex files and proactively provide forward-looking advice.
- Excellent drafting, communication (oral and written) and networking skills.
- Result-driven.
- Discretion.

The expert should be ready and available to travel frequently within and outside the EU and to follow a Hostile Environment Awareness Training (HEAT) programme if they have not done so recently.

E. Security clearance

National security clearance at EU SECRET level. Such clearance needs to be obtained by the candidate from their competent authority before secondment to the General Secretariat of the Council. The validity of the clearance should cover the entire period of the secondment. In the absence thereof, the General Secretariat reserves the right to refuse the candidate's secondment as a national expert.

The GSC is committed to diversity and inclusion. We actively seek diversity and promote inclusion among staff. We embrace all differences based on geographical and demographic characteristics and identities and strongly believe that diversity enriches our perspectives, improves our performance and increases our well-being. We therefore encourage applications from qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and on the broadest possible geographical basis from among nationals of EU Member States.
