Entity Presentation (We are)

The Road Transport unit of the DG for Mobility and Transport (MOVE) is responsible for European Road Transport Policy within the "Land" Directorate of DG MOVE. We develop legislation governing the road transport sector, in particular on access to occupation of road transport operator, access to the EU market for transport of goods and passengers, social rules and charging of road infrastructure as well as enforcement mechanisms for checking compliance with those rules. We are regularly engaged in legislative processes with

Council and Parliament and regularly hold Committee and Expert group meetings with Member States' representatives and sectoral stakeholders. We conduct public consultations on road transport issues, monitor the correct application of the road transport acquis throughout the EU and represent the EU in road transport relations with third countries.

Job Presentation (We propose)

The SNE will actively participate in the tasks of the unit which are to conceive, develop, implement and monitor European policies and related activities in the area of road transport. In particular she/he will:

- Contribute to the development of EU policies with specific regard to legislative initiatives including the Weights & Dimensions legislative proposal currently being negotiated and potential new initiatives on cross-border car rentals or ride hailing and taxi services. This includes the preparation and follow-up of legal proposals through the inter-institutional decision-making process, including adoption by the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union.
- Contribute to the EU policy in the field of heavy-duty vehicles automation, in particular in freight transport (e.g. autonomous trucks and truck platooning). This includes the monitoring of the technological developments and the analysis of the impacts of these developments on road transport legislation (social legislation, road charging, market access, etc.) as well as preparing the report evaluating the use of autonomous driving systems in Member States.
- Support the unit in monitoring the implementation of international road transport agreements in particular the road transport agreement between the EU and Ukraine.
- The tasks of the SNE include the drafting of policy notes and briefings, background papers, preparation of legal texts, replies to correspondence and parliamentary questions, contributions to inter-service consultations, etc...

Jobholder Profile (We look for)

DG MOVE C.1 is looking for a dynamic, highly motivated and experienced Seconded National Expert (SNE).

Eligibility criteria

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008) 6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

Under the terms of the SNE Decision, you need to comply with the following eligibility criteria at the starting date of the secondment:

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD.
- Seniority: having worked for at least one full year (12 months) with your current employer on a permanent or contract basis.
- Employer: must be a national, regional or local administration or an intergovernmental public organisation (IGO); exceptionally and following a specific derogation, the Commission may accept applications where your employer is a public sector body (e.g., an agency or regulatory institute), university or independent research institute.
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. If you come from a third country, you must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of the EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

Conditions of secondment

During the full duration of your secondment, you must remain employed and remunerated by your employer and covered by your (national) social security system.

You shall exercise your duties within the Commission under the conditions as set out by aforementioned SNE Decision and be subject to the rules on confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest as defined therein.

In case the position is published with allowances, these can only be granted when you fulfil the conditions provided for in Article 17 of the SNE decision.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015). It is up to you to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

Submission of applications and selection procedure

If you are interested, please follow the instructions given by your employer on how to apply.

The European Commission only accepts applications which have been submitted through the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of your country, the EFTA Secretariat or through the channel(s) it has specifically agreed to. Applications received directly from you or your employer will not be taken into consideration.

You should draft your CV in English, French or German using the Europass CV format (Create your Europass CV | Europass). It must mention your nationality.

Please do not add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Processing of personal data

The Commission will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council ⁽¹⁾. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. Before applying, please read the attached privacy statement.

⁽¹⁾ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39)
