JESÚS MIRANDA HITA 2026-2030

CANDIDATE FOR THE JOINT INSPECTION UNIT OF THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM

Jesús Miranda, currently inspector and vice-president of the United Nations Joint Inspection Unit, has extensive experience in the field of legislation and public policy formulation, public affairs management, and auditing and internal control of organizations.

He has a degree in Economics and Business Administration and holds high-level official diplomas in Economic and Financial Services Inspection, Auditing and Public Accounting, Tax and Customs Inspection, National Defense, and Quality Management Evaluation.

After having been Secretary of State Commissioner of the Government, Undersecretary of Infrastructures and Director General of Economic Affairs of Defense and Cadastre, he served for eight years as Deputy Director General-Inspector of the Economy and Finance Services in the Spanish Ministry of Finance, where he carried out numerous audits and evaluations of organizations, policies and procedures.

During the last three years as JIU Inspector, he has led the Unit's self-assessment project and prepared reports on the appeal mechanisms available to staff of participating organizations and on staff and retiree health insurance, including analysis of their long-term financial sustainability. He is currently working on the project "The Single Audit Principle and the Impact of Additional Donor Oversight Requirements", which he combines with his responsibilities as JIU Vice-President and the work on the implementation of the recommendations of the self-assessment conducted in 2022.

Mr. Miranda speaks Spanish, English and French.

"I have always strived for the highest standards of excellence in the organizations I have managed or audited. And for me excellence means not only efficiency, effectiveness, legality and quality of services, but also the proactive promotion of the highest ethical values and standards, such as integrity, transparency, professional neutrality and independence, and accountability. I bring my strong commitment to these values and my experience to continue to reinforce the excellent work of the Joint Inspection Unit in its role as an agent of change and improvement of the United Nations System".
