

IMPORTANT NOTICE – DEADLINES FOR REGISTRATION

As the date of the REAIM 2026 Summit approaches (4–5 February), we would like to kindly remind you to register your delegation by the FOLLOWING DEADLINES:

- Before 26 January for participants who do not require a visa to travel to Spain.
- Before 11 January for those who do require a visa to travel to Spain.

Registration should be completed through the following website: <https://www.exteriores.gob.es/en/REAM2026/Paginas/default.aspx>

The general format for delegations is 1 + 2.

Program (Tentative)

(DAY 1) Wednesday, February 4

9:30-10:00	Opening session
10:00-11:00	Plenary Session I: The Frontier Challenge: Artificial General Intelligence (AGI), Agentics, and Human Control
11:00-11:30	COFFEE BREAK
11:30-12:10	Parallel Session I
	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6
	· Exploring new frontiers of AI and their implications for international peace and security at large and the military domain in particular, including agentic AI	· The hypothetical geopolitical and strategic impact of A(G)I in the military domain and the integration of quantum computing and AI	· Safeguards to ensure reliability and trustworthiness	· Testing and Evaluation (T&E). · Verification, Validation, and Accreditation	· Explainability and traceability	· Measures to ensure human judgment and control. Part I.
12:10-12:20	COFFEE TAKE AWAY
12:20-12:50	Presentation 1	Presentation 2	Presentation 3	Presentation 4	Presentation 5	(Room 6) Part II
12:50-14:00	LUNCH
14:00-15:00 60min	Plenary Session II: Operationalizing Responsible AI: The Spectrum of Military Applications
15:00-15:30	COFFEE TAKE AWAY

15:30-16:20	Parallel Session II
	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6
	· AI-enabled Weapons.	· AI in Cyber Operations, Electronic Warfare and Information Operations. · Decision-making and Decision-Support systems.	· Cognitive warfare and AI-enabled neurotechnologies.	· Human resource management. · Personnel training and professional development.	· Predictive logistics, supply chain optimization, and resource planning. · Predictive maintenance.	· Demining and explosive ordnance disposal. · Humanitarian disaster relief and peacekeeping operations. · Enhancing verification and monitoring capabilities for arms control and compliance regimes.
16:20-16:40	COFFEE TAKE AWAY
16:40-17:20	REAIM Talks I: AI Governance in the Military Domain
17:20-17:40 20 min	COFFEE TAKE AWAY
17:40-18:30	Parallel Session III
	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6
	· Enhancing transparency and exchanges of information.	· Developing Confidence Building Measures (CBMs) on AI in the military domain.	· Ethical, Legal and Philosophical Dimensions of AI in Warfare.	· Understanding Public Perception and Trust in AI in the military domain.	· Understanding and synergizing parallel governance-related efforts (REAIM, UNGA Res. Artificial Intelligence in the Military Domain, Group of Governmental Experts on Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems - GGE LAWS-, Political Declaration, etc.).	· Strengthening capacity-building on responsible AI in the military domain, in particular through comprehensive education and training programs across all stakeholders' profiles.
18:40-21:00	Cocktail Reception
All day	AI Exhibition
All day	Coffe break

(DAY 2) Thursday, February 5

	High Level Segment	GENERAL PUBLIC	EXPERTS
09:30-09:50	High Level Segment	Presentation day II
10:00-10:55		Plenary Session III: The Human Imperative: Ethics, Responsibility, and Public Perception
11:00-13:30		NETWORKING – USE CASES	SIDE EVENT: EXPERTS MEETINGS
		REAIM TALKS II. A Coruña Roadmap: Strengthening Capacities for the Future
13:30 -15:00	LUNCH	LUNCH
15:00 - 15:30		FINAL STATEMENT: PATHWAYS TO ACTION	